

1ST INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR DOCTORAL STUDENTS IN EDUCATIONAL SCIENCES

The University of Klaipėda, in cooperation with the Consortiums of Doctoral Studies in Education (VDU, MRU, KU, VU, Aveiro University and LEU, KTU, ŠU, ASU), Rezekne Academy of Technologies, European Music Education Association, kindly invites you to the 1st International Scientific Conference of Doctoral Students in Education, to be held on the 13-14 of October, 2017 in Klaipėda, Lithuania.

Conference participants will include: doctoral students in education sciences from Lithuania and other countries, their scientific supervisors, academicians, researchers, professionals, government officials and policy makers, and other people interested in doctoral studies in education.

The 1st International Scientific Conference of Doctoral Students in Educational Sciences will serve as a platform which brings together doctoral students from Lithuania and abroad, and their scientific supervisors and academicians; strengthens the internationalization of scientific production and doctoral studies; develops scientific competencies of existing and potential doctoral students; develops the culture of international scientific discussion; and helps students to publish in a high-quality publication.

Conference reports. Conference presentations will be held on the 14 of October, 2017 in different sections. Each presentation will be given 20 min. Presentation languages: Lithuanian, English, and Russian. English is desirable for presentation slides. Reports can be presented by doctoral students, doctoral students and their scientific supervisors, and other people interested in doctoral studies in education. We invite you to share the results of your dissertation research, to discuss methodological research questions, to introduce theoretical aspects of dissertations and to share other ideas, which could be developed for publication in a special volume of scientific articles.

Pre-conference workshop. Pre-conference workshops will be held on the 13 of October, 2017: 1) How to prepare high quality scientific publications (prof. dr. A. Skukauskaitė); 2) New trends in qualitative research (prof. dr. Liudmila Rupšienė); 3) How to find financing for implementation of research ideas (prof. dr. Velta Lubkina, prof. dr. Ingrida Baranauskienė); 4) How to be creative in scientific endeavours (prof.dr. Rūta Girdzijauskienė).

Publication of articles. Each conference participant will receive individual advice on how to improve the report and prepare a high quality publication. Each publication will be double peer reviewed and each participant will be able to improve it until the appropriate level for publishing will be reached. High-quality publications will be selected and published in a peer-reviewed volume "Scientific Research in Education" (on line version).
